Significant Issues and Responsive Programming
July 1 – September 30, 2009

Following are the categories of issues/concerns determined by WBTV to be of significance in the service area. Under each are described typical and illustrative programs, broadcast during the period, to address those problems and needs. This listing is representative only. It is neither a comprehensive listing of all needs of the service areas as ascertained by the licensee nor the totality of the licensee's responsive programming to those needs.

Applicable CBS/network programming is attached by hard copy. All responsive local programming produced outside the already dedicated newscasts is aired in prime access time periods.

Utilizing information gathered from news personnel, WBTV staff members, local community groups and leaders, and viewer research the following list has been compiled and is the most current significant problems, needs, and interests within our community today. Below is a representative list:

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES:

ECONOMY

7/12/09 New WalMarts Opening (11:00 p.m. :20)

7/13/09 (5:00 a.m. :21, 6:00 a.m. :21)

This week -- two new Wal Mart stores are scheduled to open in our area -- both on Wednesday. The stores are in Locust and Concord. Combined they bring 750 new jobs to the area. Wal-Mart is also donating 29-thousand dollars in charitable grants to local community groups to celebrate the openings.

7/23/09 Matt Kenseth (6:00 p.m. :27, 10:00 p.m. :27, 11:00 p.m. :27)

Today another casualty of the tough economy as Dewalt Tools announced that they will discontinue their sponsorship of former NASCAR Champ Matt Kenseth and the number 17 team after this season. Dewalt has been with the team for 10 years but it was kind of expected due to the worldwide decline in the construction industry.

7/30/09 Bridal Shop Closes (5:00 a.m. 1:10, 6:00 a.m. 1:10, 5:00 p.m. 1:35, 7:00 p.m. 1:35, 10 pm. 1:49)

Another South Charlotte bridal store has closed abruptly - leaving just a note on the door. The Better Business Bureau has received two complaints about Noble Brides in Pineville - from brides who ordered and paid deposits on wedding gowns and are now out the money paid and their dresses.

In a statement on his website - shop owner Scott Noble says:

"Due to an extreme drop in sales and a wavering economy, it is with much regret and sadness I have made the unfortunate decision to close Noble Brides. The demands of suppliers have been more difficult to meet and with Brides forced to tighten their budgets, my shop could no longer sustain the necessary cash flow to continue as a full service salon."

8/27/09 Shrinking Economy (12N :48, 5 p.m. :22)

The Commerce Department says the nation's economy shrank at an annual rate of one percent this spring. It sets a record as the fourth consecutive quarter of economic decline.

It did however beat economists' expectations of 1 and a half percent decline.

9/5/09 Labor Day Sales (7:00 a.m. :47)

It looks like there will be decent Labor Day sales this weekend - and those sales are expected to continue through at least the middle of next week. That way retailers can still lure in those people who are traveling for the holiday weekend. Shoppers tell us the economy is still shaky enough that they're searching for good deals.

9/23/09 Charlotte Sympony receives donation (5:30 p.m. 2:25, 7:00 p.m. :16)

Budget woes and the slow economy threatened to silence the Charlotte Symphony. But, as we've seen so much of lately... In the worst times, people seem to be so generous.

9/25/09 Wells Fargo/Wachovia Merger 1 year later (6:00 p.m. 1:15)

A look at the Wells/Wachovia merger one-year later, not much has changed so it doesn't seem "real" to the Charlotte community.

9/30/09 Ken Lewis retires from BoA (7:00 p.m. 1:15)

Former CEO Ken Lewis retires from BoA, WBTV Reporter Melissa Hankins catches Lewis walking down a Charlotte city street and snags an interview.

PUBLIC SAFETY

7/4/09 Fireworks Safety (6:00 a.m. 1:04)

The Consumer Product Safety Commission demonstrating... Fireworks can be fun, but also very dangerous. The fourth of July is here, and it's always a big time of year for fireworks sales. We're on your side with some fireworks safety, what to do if you get burned, and exactly what is legal in the Carolinas.

7/21/09 Operation Road Watch (5:30 p.m. :48)

Tonight - the Highway Patrol is taking new steps to make sure trucks like that one are safe on our highways. They're starting "Operation Road Watch" to crackdown on safety violations.

7/28/09 CMPD New Officers (11:00 p.m. 1:02)

7/29/09 (5:00 a.m. 1:02)

The prospect of putting more officers on Charlotte streets has everyone beaming from the halls of the government center to police headquarters.

8/29/09 Toys R Us Recalls (6:00 a.m. 1:24)

This high chair was recalled for posing a fall hazard, and one child suffered a skull fracture in just such an incident...this stroller was recalled because the handle can break causing the child to fall out, and the paint on this crib has high levels of lead. These are just a few of the dozens of children's products recalled last year, yet only 3 out every 10 of these sold will be turned in.

That's why this Friday Toys R Us and Babies R Us stores across the country have launched a special program to help parents replace dangerous items with new, safer products.

It's called the "Great Trade-In." Customers who bring in old items can get a 20% discount on new products. The discount applies to things like car seats, strollers, high chairs, play yards, cribs and bassinets.

9/22/09 Distracted Drivers Course for Teens (5:30 p.m. :36)

Allstate brought this distracted driver course to the Bojangle's Coliseum parking lot today. Local teens got behind the wheel - trying to avoid cones, focus on the road - all while texting on their cell phones. The kids say - they learned a valuable lesson.

9/29/09 Toyota Recall (11:00 p.m. :30)

WBTV's On Your Side tonight with news on a huge recall. Toyota says almost four million vehicles may have a dangerous problem with floor mats...that could cause the accelerator to get stuck.

SOCIAL; HUMAN SERVICES

7/10/09 Friday Recalls (5:00 a.m. 1:07, 6:00 a.m. 1:07)

We're on your side with Friday morning Recalls today. First, if you've bought shoes at Nordstrom recently, there's several styles where the heels can break off. The recall involved several colors and styles of Charles by Charles Davis brand shoes.

Wilton Industries is recalling Copco Harmony Tea Kettles.

The lid on the kettle can come loose when you handle the pot, or try to pour hot water. This poses a burn hazard for anyone using it.

7/13/09 City Council Candidates (12N 1:12)

WBTV is on your side, with information about the upcoming elections this fall. Candidates for school board, city council and mayor have until Friday to file.

7/29/09 Swine Flu Vaccine (11:00 p.m. :41)

Tonight government experts have a priority list for swine flu vaccinations.

They say pregnant women, health care workers and children under six months of age should be placed at the top of the line. The target date for a vaccine is late October.

8/10/09 United Way (7 p.m. :48)

The United Way taking a new direction by bringing in a C-E-O to replace Gloria Pace King. Jane McIntyre will head up the United Way of the Central Carolinas.

8/18/09 Rowan Light Show (12Noon 2:40)

Look out McAdenville, another local town will be setting up a holiday drive-through park this Christmas. Organizers of Glittering Nites in Salisbury are predicting a one-million-dollar impact on the economy. This is a partnership between the city and county to provide the light park complete with skating rink at Summit Corporate Center. The park is planned to open November 25th, and run through January 3rd. There will be a per-car charge, but right now that price has not been set.

9/11/09 Panthers Home Opener (5:00 a.m. :21, 6:00 a.m. :21)
The Carolina Panthers kick off the 2009 campaign Sunday at 1 at Bank Of America stadium taking on the Philadelphia Eagles. The Panthers are coming off a winless preseason. They announced yesterday that starting strong safety Chris Harris is questionable for Sunday's game, he left practice yesterday with a sore left knee.

9/22/09 Skipper Beck Plane Crash (6:00 p.m. :39, 7:00 p.m. :46, 10:00 p.m. :39, 11:00 p.m. 1:16)
Beck, a Charlotte businessman, died when his plane went down last week at the Rock Hill airport.

WBTV EDITORIALS, 3Q 2009:

"Speak Out" is an expression of opinion from the Editorial Board of WBTV, and is presented by General Manager, Nick Simonette.

Speak Out: Burke County Mess

July 1, 2009 - You might have heard...things are a little rowdy in Burke County. It all centers around decisions made by school board politicians. Check out the chain of events: In April, the Burke County school board terminates a popular superintendent but gives no reason...the community is outraged. Soon after...uproar over a school board member sending racist emails consisting of the "N" word. Days later a board member resigns. Then the superintendent sues for breach of contract. Crowds at school board meetings are so big -- and passionate -- security is on-hand. Once, 9-1-1 was even called. Most recently is the news the board can't decide who should fill the vacant school board seat. What a mess. And -- really -- what a financial burden to the county. Several lawsuits have been filed. This shows how important it is to research candidates before you vote for them. Some Burke County school board members are up for re-election this year. Remember, Burke County voters, you hold all their power in your hands. We think that Burke County school board members need to give the reason they are getting rid of the superintendent. If it's a legitimate reason in your mind, don't hide behind secrecy. Once you announce the 'why,' maybe you can refocus on educating students and not conducting a media circus.

Speak Out: American Made Patriotism

July 4, 2009 - I'm about to say something you've all heard before. This time, really listen to the words." I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." The Pledge of Allegiance has been around since 1892. It's about respect, unity and American pride. So this July 4th, when you salute the flag...take a quick check of the flag itself. Look for the tag. See where -- see what country -- your American flag was made. It's a small act, but one big in symbolism. Other countries started an increase in production of American flags after September 11th...it was a supply and demand issue. So many Americans were buying them, importers saw a chance to make money. Nowadays, you can find not just flags...but all kinds of red, white and blue products made in Mexico, Thailand and China. Other places profiting off our patriotism. It's something to think about this patriotic holiday. Now is the time to celebrate our independence and to support the United States of America...and the Republic for which it stands.

Speak Out: Deadbeat Parents

July 8, 2009 - When a parent is ordered by the court to pay child support and continuously fails to do so, he or she is referred to as a "deadbeat." The court makes child support rulings for a reason. Giving life to a child is a responsibility no one should ignore. Those who create the mouths must feed them. For many of us, it's hard to imagine walking away from your own child. Taking off before a child is old enough to take care of him or herself is a crime. It's also a form of abuse. Not paying child support is not okay. Deadbeats -- get involved. We're not talking just with money. See if your child is eating well. Check on whether he has health insurance. Know what her report card shows. Now -- during times when more and more people are in need of more and more support -- Now is the time to make sure you're taking responsibility for your own child's well-being and future. Now is time to step up to the plate and be accountable. Each deadbeat parent situation is unique. Take your own and try to fix it. Don't make kids pay in untold sacrifices because his or her parent refuses to accept responsibility.

Speak Out: WBTV's 60th Anniversary

July 15, 2009 - 60 years ago this week, WBTV...the Carolinas' first TV station...broadcast a grainy, black and white picture. It was a simpler time, but not care-free. America was in the throes of a cold war, a gallon of gas had inched up to a quarter and most workers made less than $3,000. On the local scene, Charlotte was a quiet southern city of 134,000. Now we're a population of more than 600,000. Much has changed over these six decades...And yet, much hasn't. We feared communism then; today it's terrorism. In 1949, Charlotte students were segregated. The debate now is over the cost to teach those students. Back then, Charlotte was a textile town...which came and went. Its replacement -- banking -- could be on its way out. Will energy be next? Sixty years ago, you might go to a minor league ball game between the Rock Hill Chiefs and the Charlotte Hornets. We are still a sports town -- but it's now more NASCAR and Panther country. Funny, when you think about the more things change, the more they really stay the same. Taxes, schools, growth and regional entertainment....They were issues we reported back then, and continue to lead our newscasts today. And decades ago, WBTV took a stand and aired editorials. Last year, we started "Speaking Out" again. And you've responded. Thank you. We're proud to have been a part of this community for 60 years.

Speak Out: The Worst Time to Raise Taxes

July 22, 2009 - GOVERNOR PERDUE...WHAT ARE YOU THINKING? WE'VE SAID THIS IN A PREVIOUS EDITORIAL, AND WE WANT TO SAY IT AGAIN. UNEMPLOYMENT IS AT A RECORD HIGH IN NORTH CAROLINA... PEOPLE ARE HURTING... AND YOU WANT TO RAISE TAXES ON MONEY THEY DON'T HAVE? THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSED SALES TAX HIKE WOULD GIVE MECKLENBURG COUNTY ONE OF THE HIGHEST RATES IN THE COUNTRY. STATE LAWMAKERS ARE ALSO CONSIDERING TAKING 38 MILLION DOLLARS FROM CHARLOTTE TO HELP BALANCE THE STATE'S BUDGET. THOSE ARE MOVES MAYOR PAT MCCRORY SAYS COULD KILL A FINANCIAL RECOVERY IN THE QUEEN CITY. AND IT'S NOT LIKE WE AREN'T TAXED ENOUGH ALREADY...AND ON TOP OF THAT, GOVERNOR PERDUE IS PUSHING FOR NEW SALES TAXES ON A WIDE-RANGE OF SERVICES WHICH HAVE LONG BEEN TAX-EXEMPT.... TAXES ON HAIRCUTS...HOME REPAIR...REPAIRS ON YOUR CAR. THE GOVERNOR SAYS THESE NEW TAXES AND HIGHER TAX RATES WILL SAVE TEACHING POSITIONS. WE SAY TAKE A SHARPER KNIFE TO BUDGET ITEMS. IF YOU AGREE...CALL YOUR STATE SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES...CALL THE GOVERNOR. FAMILIES ARE TRYING TO SURVIVE ONE OF THE WORST RECESSIONS IN HISTORY. THIS IS NOT THE TIME TO RAISE TAXES.

Speak Out: Burke County Mess

July 29, 2009 - It's a SHAME and an EMBARRASSMENT. The Burke County School Board may have thought their troubles were over after getting rid of popular superintendent David Burleson. They were wrong. Next week, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools -- known as SACS -- will pay a visit to the Burke County Board of Education. SACS determines if high school diplomas and certificates are legitimate. In a few days, their experts will examine how Burke's Board of Education governs. We say "What a SHAME." SACS has received numerous complaints from the community about how the Board has handled several issues. The association is convinced there is a problem. It says the Board of Education struggles to get the job done. Now, because of the selfish politics of a few, students who have worked so hard to get the necessary credits to graduate will have to deal with the threat of having it all yanked away. We also say "What an EMBARRASSMENT." Things must be pretty bad for SACS to be forced to spend time and money examining a Board of Education. This visit will go down in the history of Burke County. Board members, let this be a wake-up call. Stop letting personal agendas get in the way of students' education. We say no more shame...and no more embarrassment...for the sake of the community and its students.

Speak Out: Sanford Should Resign

August 5, 2009 - Question -- Who do you think said this? "I think it would be much better for the country and for him personally (to resign). I come from the business side. If you had a chairman or president in the business world facing these allegations, he'd be gone." That, folks, would be a quote from Mark Sanford. Sanford said that about Bill Clinton, when Clinton lied about his affair. Here's another one -- who do you think said THIS? "The issue of lying is probably the biggest harm, if you will, to the system of Democratic government, representative government because it undermines trust. And if you undermine trust in our system, you undermine everything." That's also Sanford, talking years ago about Clinton. Governor Sanford -- you should resign. We don't support your affair, but that's not the reason we're saying this. In fact, if it was just the affair, our editorial board wouldn't have this stance. You should resign because -- as those quotes prove -- you are not living up to your own word. Even more importantly, you ignored your duty. You left taxpayers with no warning. You wouldn't answer 15 calls from your Chief of Staff. You met your "soul mate" on previous taxpayer-funded trips. You intentionally let the people you serve think you were somewhere you weren't. Even more importantly -- as those previous quotes prove -- you are not living up to your own word. We understand you're opting to stay in office. But if any of us had such dereliction of duty, we wouldn't have an option. We would have already been fired.

Speak Out: Raising Taxes

August 20, 2009 - Here's a quote from Beverly Perdue last October: "I don't believe that you can raise taxes in an economy with folks struggling the way they are." Just a few weeks ago she said: "Who in the world thinks in these trying, challenging times for families that you can raise income tax?" But then, last week, Governor Perdue signed a State Budget that raises 990-million in new taxes. It passed. The vote was strictly down party lines... Democrats voting yes... Republicans voting no. In our new budget, singles making more than 60-thousand a year and couples making more than 100-thousand will be hit with an extra tax. EVERYONE will be paying higher sales taxes. Mecklenburg County will continue to have the dubious honor of the highest sales tax in the state...now over 8 percent! Is this what the Governor really had in mind? If you listen to her last October -- or even two months ago -- it's not. And yet it's now the reality we're facing. Is there anything taxpayers - you and I - can do? Right now... no. But wait 15 months. The General Election for the North Carolina House and Senate is November 20-10. Go to wbtv dot com to find out how your representatives voted on the budget. We've posted all the votes there to make your research easy. If you don't agree with their vote on these tax increases, remember that come Election Day 20-10. And by the way, Governor Perdue will likely be up for re-election in 20-13. We'll remind you.

Speak Out: Finish I-485

August 20, 2009 - When it comes to parceling out road money, the "Good Ole' Boys" in Raleigh seem to have formed the "ABC Club" - Anywhere But Charlotte. We've already told you about the partial Fayetteville loop which carries a paltry 9,000 cars a day. Now we have learned that construction contracts have been awarded to yet another RALEIGH expressway. This 19-mile stretch should be open by 2012. It is slated to be the state's first toll road... But it's being funded BEFORE any tolls are collected. Thank you, taxpayers. Speaking of toll roads, there's lots of discussion lately about the proposed Garden Parkway in Gaston County. Some say it will relieve future congestion... others call it a waste of money. Our board has no objection to building highways that will pay for themselves. But get this - the state of North Carolina will contribute $35 million EACH YEAR in "gap funding" to cover any construction shortfalls. Potentially for four decades! And while this is fought over... I-485 sits idle. Charlotte can't get a dime to finish that never-ending project. It has been in the works for 20 years. Hey legislators! Hey Governor! Here's a novel idea... before you go financing any more new highways around the state, how about finishing the one you started in Mecklenburg County?

Speak Out: NAACP

August 26, 2009 - The National Association of Colored People...better known as the N-double-A-C-P... has played and continues to play a major role to obtain justice for African Americans. But in a world where there is still racial tension, it's sad to say Charlotte... the largest city in North Carolina... is not on board with the oldest and largest civil rights organization in the country. The chapter here dissolved years ago, after the Alexander family ran it successfully for decades. It doesn't matter what happened... but rather how it can get started again. Recently, during the N-double-A-C-P's 100th year anniversary celebration in New York, officials said a reorganization would take place this month in Charlotte. They said a chapter will be up and running by October. We want NAACP leaders to stick to their word. Why? Because the organization is not just for blacks. All races have joined the group to ensure that equal employment opportunities, voting rights and other rights happen for ALL citizens. America, including Charlotte, has come a long way in understanding diversity. But the battle is far from over. An N-double-A-C-P chapter in Charlotte will not only empower our neighbors...It will hopefully make people think twice before committing acts of racial hatred.

Speak Out: Deadly Consequence

September 2, 2009 - At this hour do you know where your children are? Do you know what they are doing? Who they are hanging out with? If not...you should. It could mean a matter of life or death. Recently, four teens broke into an elderly couple's home. Police say the boys tied them up, ransacked their house and robbed the husband and wife at gunpoint. After the suspects left, the husband went looking for them. He ended up shooting and killing a 15-year-old boy who, along with three others, allegedly broke into the house. The sad part to this story is not just the death of a ninth grader. But that the parent didn't know her son was associating with two teenagers who had a criminal history. That's right -- two of the four suspects had been arrested before. And one was even wearing an electronic ankle bracelet at the time of the break-in. This story could have been different if the mom had known what her son was doing, who was influencing him, and had put a stop to it. Now, a mother has to bury her son over a bad acquaintance and a bad decision. What a deadly consequence. Begin today to know where your child is...who he or she is associating with...and by all means give them the love and direction that they must have. It just might save their lives...and save you much heartache.

Speak Out: Patriotism

September 9, 2009 - Are you a patriot? Friday is September 11th, now also known as Patriots' Day. Show your patriotism. Show your support of our country. Show your belief in our Constitution. Fly an American flag. I will. I can feel good saying that. I am a patriot. I will fly our flag. We hope you are a patriot. We hope we all are patriots. We hope we see stars and stripes proudly waving on 9/11. Those flags are waving not just to show patriotism... but more importantly on this day, to remember those who died in the terrorist attacks eight years ago. People like Sophia Addo, a 36-year old housekeeper at Windows on the World. Or, Liam Callahan, a 44-year old Port Authority police officer. Or, 31-year old mother and administrative assistant, Jill Marie Campbell. Patriot. Patriot. Patriot. We could name all two-thousand, nine-hundred, ninety-three people lost that day. They all died as patriots. Fly your flag on Friday. Remember this day the way a patriot should.

Speak Out: Hiring the Best Teachers

September 12, 2009 - Before the summer vacation, Charlotte-Mecklenburg schools laid off 665 teachers. Now that the state budget is finally approved, Superintendent Peter Gorman is re-hiring teachers...but not all of them. CMS can bring back 286 teachers and licensed staff. Gorman says his priority is finding top talent, and that there might be better teachers out there than the ones who were dismissed this summer. Teachers who were laid off are having to re-apply. Teachers let go because of a poor performance record, and retirees drawing their pension, are not eligible. Aside from needing to make budget cuts, maybe this was an opportunity to thin out underperforming teachers. We want Superintendent Gorman to hire the best... Teachers who will make CMS a great place for students to learn... Passionate teachers that want to impact children's lives... Educators who can help bring CMS to the top of the scholastic charts. This is an opportunity to make the best decisions for the future of Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, and we support Superintendent Gorman and his staff in their efforts. But, as we all know, even the best teachers can't do it alone. Parents, you have to be involved. Your child's success in school depends on it. It's time for all of us to step up to the plate.

Speak Out: The Beach Plan

September 19, 2009 - Do you own a beach home? Maybe not. But thanks to NC Lawmakers, you may be helping to pay for them. With all the debate about Health Care reform, and tax increases you might have missed this new law. If the North Carolina coast is hit with a catastrophic storm like Hurricane Hugo, property owners statewide will now have to help cover losses for beach homeowners. It's a revision of the so-called Beach Plan. The original plan was designed 40 years ago to be a last resort...to offer hurricane insurance to property owners on barrier islands, where they couldn't get it from private companies. But, it's been allowed to grow out of control. With its below market rates, the Beach Plan is now the first choice for coastal property owners. And, it doesn't have nearly enough assets to cover losses. Now, to keep private insurance companies from fleeing the state...the State Insurance commissioner will be able to tack an extra 10% charge on every property insurance policy in North Carolina. We think that's wrong. We think that people who own coastal property are the ones who should take the risk... and the ones who should pay the price. What can you do about it? Contact your representatives. We've put a link on WBTV dot com. With elections coming up in November 2010...there may very well be a way to change politicians' minds... and the law...IF enough people speak out.

Speak Out: Burke County School Board

September 23, 2009 - Think democracy doesn't work? People uniting together can make a difference. You can live in a small town with big problems and get results. Take Burke County. Neighbors didn't like the way their school board was handling their business. They complained to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools... better known as SACS. SACS agreed with the people. It told the school board to get its act together by the end of the year. We say this is a good example of what speaking out can do...We sayatta boy. If you don't speak out - don't expect things to change. And...speaking of speaking out. The Burke County school board finally gave their motives for releasing Superintendent David Burleson. They cited several very general reasons...lack of leadership, mistrust and bad financial decisions. Why couldn't the board be more specific...so that everyone knows what they are talking about? The school board claims they didn't speak up months ago because they wanted to take the high road. But we believe by them NOT coming clean earlier... They took the community down the road of confusion and disappointment. So now we'll all wait for the school board to change its ways. And we'll try to take the positive out of this -- that no matter how big or small your community or problem is --continue to be bold and speak out. You can make a difference.

Speak Out: Had Enough?

September 30, 2009 - One thing is very clear after a series of recent town hall meetings and the September 12th rally in Washington D-C -- lots of people are mad as hell! Are YOU one of them? Maybe it's the proposed changes to your health care plan that has your stomach in knots. Perhaps it's the ballooning deficit. Or are you still trying to figure out why Raleigh thought THIS was a good time to raise taxes? Those in charge making these decisions are here to stay, at least for a little longer. But take heart. Every seat in the North Carolina legislature - all 170 members - will be up for a vote in 13 months. And... every member of the U-S House of Representatives - your Congressman - will be too. So, we urge you -- use this next year to educate yourself on who's in office now. Ask yourself -- how do feel you're being represented? Who may be offering new ideas? And who's just going through the same old - same old? Though it sounds early, now is the time to do your homework. It's up to you to know what the names on a ballot stand for. One word of caution: this time when you vote for "Change," make sure it's the kind of change you want!

48 HOURS MYSTERY

07/04/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Next Door" (2) - a follow-up to one of the two stories included in "The Girl Next Door" (OAD: 01/07/06). In that report, Detective Scott Dudek of the Alameda County (CA) Sheriff's Office was attempting to establish the identity of a teenage girl whose body was found on May 1, 2003 in a trash bag left behind a restaurant in Castro Valley, California. Forensic sculptor Gloria Nusse created a reconstruction of the girl's face, based on nothing but her skull. After the initial 2006 report on 48 HOURS MYSTERY, a viewer called to say that the victim looked like a young girl who had been seen around Castro Valley with Miguel Castaneda, who had worked at the restaurant where the body was dumped. He had disappeared, but police received a tip that the girl and the man she had been seen with might have been from the same hometown in Mexico. Dudek and his team then went to Yahualica, Mexico. There they extensively publicized their search and handed out many fliers. A woman whose daughter was missing came forward, and a DNA sample would later confirm that she was the mother of the now-identified victim: Yesenia Nungaray. Yesenia was given a funeral in her hometown. The search for Miguel Castaneda continues. (C: Harold Dow - P: Clare Friedland) (OAD: 12/15/07; first rebroadcast: 06/14/08) (Graphic update for this second rebroadcast: Detective Dudek says Miguel Castaneda is living in Mexico. Despite multiple arrest warrants, Mexico is not cooperating with his extradition. There is still a $65,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of Yesenia's killer.)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Stolen Dreams" - In November of 2003, Jeanne Callahan of Rockville Centre, Long Island waited for her husband, Stephen Trantel, to return home from a day of fishing. Hours later, she received a call telling her that Stephen was alive, but was under arrest -- police told Jeanne that Stephen had committed ten bank robberies. To the people who knew Stephen, he was the least likely to rob a bank - for one, he was the son of a New York City cop. And because he was a trader on Wall Street in the big money world of commodities, he wouldn't have to steal anything. But those closest to him didn't know was that he was living a secret life. Stephen had worked for a trading company, but had become self-employed and was betting his own money on the future price of oil. He was doing well, but he didn't plan ahead. He purchased Jeanne her dream home and their mortgage tripled. As their other expenses increased, Stephen struggled to keep up. He lost so much money that the commodities exchange barred him from the floor. Afraid to tell his wife, Stephen decided that in order to hold on to the lifestyle he and Jeanne had grown accustomed to, he was going to have to steal money to maintain it. After doing research on the internet, Stephen robbed his first bank in July of 2003. By the time Stephen was caught four months later, he had stolen more than $60,000. In exchange for information and an admission of guilt, Stephen Trantel was sentenced to nine years in prison. Shortly after Stephen entered prison, Jeanne divorced him. He is scheduled to be released from prison in 2012. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Patti Aronofsky) (OAD: 03/15/08)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Vegas Heat" - a report on the December 14, 2005 discovery of the charred corpse of a young woman, found in a burned-out car on a Las Vegas, Nevada desert road. The car was registered to Kelly Ryan, a fitness champion who is married to Craig Titus, a Mr. Olympia competitor. Both were stars of the body building world and also hard partiers, known for using illegal drugs and pain killers. The unrecognizable body was initially thought to be Ryan, but authorities were stunned when they arrived at the couple's house only to be greeted by her at the door. When asked about the car, Craig and Kelly claimed that it had been taken the day before by Melissa James, their 31-year-old live-in assistant and a dancer, who was headed to New Jersey to spend Christmas with her mother. Melissa never made it to New Jersey and when pressed, Craig and Kelly accused her of theft -- that she stole the Jaguar and used Kelly's debit card to steal from them. Detectives were lucky and discovered that Kelly's debit card was last used at Wal-Mart by Kelly, who purchased seven bottles of lighter fluid. Panicked by the police visit, Craig and Kelly confided in Megan Foley, Kelly's friend, that a fight between Kelly and Melissa had spiraled out of control -- Kelly tased Melissa, injected her with narcotics and that it ended when Craig choked her. Megan's attorney contacted the police. Armed with that information, police issued a warrant for their arrest. Eventually, the FBI tracked the couple to Boston, where they were charged with murder and arson. Twenty-one days after the body was found, it was officially identified as Melissa James. But because the body was so badly burned, the coroner could not say for sure how Melissa died or if it was even murder. Craig had a different story and in an interview, told 48 HOURS that Melissa had attacked Kelly and that he interceded on his wife's behalf. Enraged, Melissa ran upstairs to her room and when Craig checked on her, she was dead. Craig also claimed that he, Melissa, and Kelly had been using drugs for days leading up to the fight and that her death was an overdose. High on drugs, they panicked and disposed of her body in the desert. As the trial was about to begin, Craig and Kelly each accepted a plea deal -- Craig for second-degree murder, kidnapping, and arson; Kelly for battery and arson. After further courtroom dramatics, Craig Titus was sentenced to 21 to 55 years and Kelly Ryan to six to 17 years in prison. Craig has filed a motion to reduce his sentence. Kelly says her marriage to Craig is over. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chuck Stevenson, Chris O'Connell) (OAD: 11/08/08) (Graphic update for this first rebroadcast: Craig Titus' request to reduce his sentence or let him stand trial was denied. Kelly Ryan has filed for a divorce.)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betrayal" - an update of a report on the September 3, 2006 disappearance of Nina Reiser, a Russian doctor who had married Hans Reiser, an American computer whiz. The couple had two children, but their marriage began to fall apart and Nina began an affair with Sean Sturgeon, Hans' best friend. Embroiled in a nasty custody fight, Nina dropped off the children at Hans' house on Labor Day weekend and then mysteriously vanished. Her body had never been found. After investigation, Hans was arraigned on murder charges five weeks after Nina's disappearance, and one year later, went on trial for her murder. After three days of deliberation, the jury found him guilty of first degree murder and he was sentenced to 25 years to life. Update for this rebroadcast: In the summer of 2008, Hans Reiser offered to lead police to Nina's body in exchange for a reduced verdict and reduced time in prison. The police agreed; Hans led them to her remains, which he had buried just half a mile from his house. As part of the deal, Hans was required to provide a detailed confession of how he murdered Nina, and his voice is heard describing how he strangled her. One month later, the verdict against Hans was lowered to murder in the second degree, and sentenced him to 15 years to life. Graphic updates: Nina Reiser was buried in St. Petersburg, Russia. Her children will remain in Russia with Nina's mother. Hans Reiser will be eligible for parole in 2021. He will be 58 years old. 07/25/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder -- and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. Goldbaum, Taigi Smith) (OAD: 11/29/08)

- 1) Topics include: promise that conditions for those who have health insurance will improve under proposed health care reform / health care exchange program which will allow the uninsured to find the best possible policy / President Obama's support for the public option -- allowing for choice and competition, in order to drive down costs and improve quality / risks involved should nothing be done to reform health care / anger directed at elected officials at the health care forums around the country / atmosphere of President Obama's recent health care forums / belief that the rancor displayed at some of the forums is garnering too much attention; President Obama's commitment to improving the American economy
- 2) Report from Afghanistan on the current environment in that country on the eve of presidential and provincial council elections
- 3) Topics include: troubling conditions in Afghanistan / need for America to reexamine our objectives in Afghanistan / upcoming elections / rumors of a request for additional troops / complexities of Afghanistan and the possibility that America will continue to isolate itself should it continue to stay in that region / does an increase in troops equate viewing America as an occupation force / belief that American policy needs to stay focused on protecting Americans and dismantling al Qaeda / historical, political, cultural, and economic forces exist within Afghanistan that make it impossible to modernize / Pakistan as an example of a country that has never been governable / disappointment in current President Hamid Karzai's leadership, but the importance of working with whomever wins the upcoming election
- 4) Topics include: reasoning behind President Teddy Roosevelt's determination to create a national park system / current state of the national park system / importance of preserving the national parks as "great heirlooms to future generations"
- 08/23/09 Guests: Senator Chuck Grassley (R-IA), Ranking Member, Committee on Finance (1); Senator Kent Conrad (D-ND), Committee on Finance (1); former Governor Howard Dean, M.D. (D-VT), former Chairman, Democratic National Committee (2)
- 1) Topics include: problems posed by keeping or dropping the public insurance option from the health care reform bill / proposed cooperative plan -- a plan that would be controlled by its membership, not like a public insurance option that would be government run / reaction to the suggestion made by former Senator Tom Daschle (D-SD) that a procedure called reconciliation -- used to circumvent the requirement of having sixty votes for passage of a bill -- be used to pass the health care reform bill / views as to how President Obama has presented health care reform / clarification by Senator Grassley regarding his recent statement denouncing any government program "that determines you're going to pull the plug on grandma" / the eight billion dollar cost associated with end of life counseling / Republican notion of splitting the bill in two and passing the less controversial aspects first, before addressing the more arguable points / need to take measures to control the rising costs associated with health care and reduce the deficit as a result
- 2) Topics include: support for the public insurance option and an explanation as to how it would impact taxpayers and benefit the small-business community / criticism against Senator Grassley and other Republicans for not being forthcoming about what they would and would not support in a health care reform bill / belief that President Obama feels that a public insurance option is necessary for true reform / view that the proposed cost of sixty billion dollars a year -- less than what is spent on Iraq and Afghanistan -- is a reasonable amount / end-of-life counseling -- permitted under Medicare -- has been morphed into "pulling the plug on grandma" by the far-right, in order to frighten the public

"The Price Of Bananas" - Chiquita Brands International of Cincinnati, Ohio has admitted that it paid nearly $2 million dollars to protect its employees in Colombia -- first to the Marxist guerillas known as FARC and then to the paramilitaries who rose up to fight them, the AUC. Critics say that the money Chiquita paid may have kept their employees safe, but also helped to buy the weapons and ammunition used to massacre other people, making Chiquita complicit in those deaths. Among the interviewed are: Fernando Aguirre, Chief Executive Officer and President of Chiquita Brands International and Salvatore Mancuso, former leader of the AUC. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court) (OAD: 05/11/08 - Includes an update.)

"Brain Power" - a report on brain-computer interface or BCI, a new technology that connects the human brain to a computer, which allows people who are completely paralyzed due to illness or trauma to operate computers, write e-mails, and drive wheelchairs. Scientists hope that in the future, BCI may restore movement to paralyzed people and allow amputees to move bionic limbs. Includes comments from neuroscientist Dr. Jonathan Wolpaw of New York State's Wadsworth Center; Dr. Andy Schwartz, a neuroscientist at the University of Pittsburgh; and Brown University neuroscientist Dr. John Donoghue. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta) (OAD: 11/02/08)

"Swimming With Sharks" - because tour operators use food to attract sharks for their "shark tourist" customers, critics say surfers and swimmers are in more danger now because the dangerous fish are associating humans with food. Includes footage of Bob Simon's trip to Shark Central at the tip of South Africa where he got a close-up view of great whites from the vantage of a shark-proof cage; and interviews with Aidan Martin, an Australian scientist; Chris Fallows, a shark tourism operator; Chris Bovin, a surfer; and Helgo Schelmer, a psychologist and surfer. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon, Solly Granatstein) (OAD: 12/11/05)

"Michael Vick" - in his first interview since he admitted to participating in illegal dogfighting, recently reinstated quarterback Michael Vick discusses the crime that resulted in his suspension from the NFL and an eventual prison sentence. Signed to the Philadelphia Eagles, Vick spends much of his free time speaking on the dangers of animal cruelty. Also interviewed: Tony Dungy, former NFL coach who has been asked to mentor Vick; Wayne Pacelle, President of the Humane Society of the United States. (C: James Brown - P: Michael Radutzky, Graham Messick, Michael Karzis)

"America's New Air Force" - a report on the U.S. military's use of the Reaper and the Predator, unmanned and often-armed aircraft, to track and destroy the enemy. These drones are sometimes controlled from bases thousands of miles away from the battlefield. Interviewed: Colonel Chris Chambliss and Lieutenant Colonel Chris Gough, former F-16 combat pilots who are now operating the drones from Creech Air Force base in Nevada; General Norton Schwartz, Chief of Staff of the Air Force. (C: Lara Logan - P: Max McClellan, Jeff Newton) (OAD: 05/19/09)

"Coldplay" - a profile of the British rock group, Coldplay, who provide a rare look inside their world, which includes a candid interview with frontman and singer Chris Martin. Also interviewed: guitarist Jonny Buckland, bass player Guy Berryman and drummer Will Champion. (C: Steve Kroft - P: John Hamlin) (OAD: 02/08/09)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Rooney's Friend Don Hewitt" - Andy explains the legacy left by his longtime friend Don Hewitt
- 08/30/09 "The Wasteland" - a report on the black market dismantling of electronic waste, or "e-waste", focusing on Hong Kong and the toxic dumps of Guiyu, China -- a city so polluted, it has the highest levels of cancer-causing dioxins in the world. Though it is illegal to import toxic e-waste, it is a lucrative business, where junked computers, televisions, and other old electronic products are mined for valuable components, including gold. Includes comments from Allen Hershkowitz of the Natural Resources Defense Council; and Jim Puckett, founder of the Basel Action Network. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Solly Granatstein) (OAD: 11/09/08 - Includes an update.)
"Financial Weapons Of Mass Destruction" - a report on credit derivatives or credit default swaps. Essentially side bets on the performance of the U.S. mortgage markets and the solvency of some of the biggest financial institutions in the world, they are a form of legalized gambling that allows you to wager on financial outcomes without ever having to actually buy the stocks, the bonds and the mortgages. Although illegal for most of the twentieth century, Congress gave Wall Street an exemption eight years ago. Includes interviews with Jim Grant, editor of Grant's Interest Rate Observer; Frank Partuoy, former derivatives broker; Eric Dinallo, Insurance Superintendent for the State of New York; and Columbia University Law professor Harvey Goldschmid. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

08/01/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Conspiracy To Kill" - A report on the suspiciously similar circumstances surrounding the deaths, 19 years apart, of the two husbands of Sonia Rios, who herself was later murdered. Rios, a native of the Philippines, first married Earl Bourdeau, a U.S. Marine whom she met in the Philippines. They settled in Lomita, California. After a stormy 21-year marriage, Earl wanted a divorce. But before Sonia would grant him one, she demanded that he go to the Philippines by himself to sell a family taxi business. Earl went, and, in August 1987, while sleeping on the couch in the home of Sonia's relatives, he was shot in the head at point-blank range. In 1990, Sonia then married Navy Commander Larry Risken. By 2006, their marriage had deteriorated, and Larry wanted a divorce. Sonia consented, but only if Larry went alone on a long-planned trip to the Philippines to visit two of Sonia's young relatives of whom he was very fond. He made the trip, and in April 2006 Larry was killed in the parking lot of a hospital there. One year later, in April 2007, Sonia herself was shot to death in her Lomita, California home. Both Earl and Larry's families are convinced that Sonia had both of her husbands murdered for their insurance money. But the murders of both men -- and the murder of Sonia Rios -- remain unsolved. Includes interviews with Sherry Jackson, sister of Larry Risken; Dennis Bourdeau, brother of Earl Bourdeau; Larry Altman, crime reporter; Henry Hoskins, friend of Sonia Rios; Bong Oteza, private investigator; Mike Rodriguez, L.A. County Sheriff's detective; Dr. Rachel Fortan, forensic pathologist. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Joe Halderman, Sara Rodriguez) (OAD: 01/31/09). Updated text graphics for this first rebroadcast: Sonia Rios' nephew, Eric Delacruz, and his friend, Fernando Romero, were arrested in April and charged with her murder. Both pleaded not guilty. On July 24, Sonia's friend Henry Hoskins died of a gunshot wound to the head. The coroner has ruled the death a suicide. The murders of Earl Bourdeau and Larry Risken remain unsolved.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Caught In The Crossfire" (9:00-11:00p) - an expanded and updated report (OAD: 02/24/07; first updated 06/12/07) about Charla and Darren Mack of Reno, Nevada, a married, childless couple who were swingers who liked to attend group sex parties. After their daughter Brika was born, Charla was no longer interested in swinging and their marriage began to crumble. Charla filed for divorce. Family court Judge Chuck Weller, ordered Darren to pay Charla a lump sum of $480,000 and, $10,000 a month in spousal support. On June 12, 2006, a bullet was fired through the window of Judge Weller's chambers, spraying him with shrapnel. Shortly afterwards, police found Charla's dead body at Darren's condo. Darren had fled to Mexico. On June 22, he turned himself in to the police and was brought back to the U.S. He was charged with the murder of his wife and the attempted murder of Judge Weller. More than a year later, the trial began. The defense tried a unique strategy: self-defense in the murder of Charla and insanity for the attempted murder of Judge Weller, citing that Weller was biased towards women and was having an affair with Charla Mack. When it came time for the defense's turn, instead of taking the stand, Darren took a deal, admitting to Charla's murder, and admitting there was enough evidence to find him guilty in the attempted murder of Judge Weller. Then, three weeks later, he withdrew his guilty plea and demanded a new trial, alleging his attorneys were in it just for the money. A new trial began, and by calling his former lawyers to the stand, Darren waived his right to attorney-client privilege; the damning revelations began. Mack took the stand, insisted he acted in self-defense and was coerced and confused when he took the plea bargain. The judge ruled against Darren's motion to withdraw the plea and he was sentenced to life in prison. He still insists he acted in self-defense. This rebroadcast includes updated text graphics at its conclusion. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 08/15/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Peace, Love And Murder" - A report on the murder of housewife Toni Heartsong, killed in her Jupiter, Florida home on September 26, 2000. That day, police received a phone call from her husband Bob Heartsong saying that he had come home from work to discover her dead body, brutally bludgeoned and stabbed. For various reasons, Bob was initially eliminated as a possible suspect, but in 2006, new DNA technology revealed the presence of his blood under Toni's thumbnail and his DNA on her hand. He was arrested, and in 2008 he was tried for her murder. The blood evidence presented by the prosecution was deemed inconclusive, and the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. Among those interviewed are: Barry Soren, Toni's brother; her cousins Mel and Sandra Sorkowitz, Deb Schepp, Elissa LeJeune; Toni's sons Eli and Jake Heartsong; Florida State investigator Tim Valentine; Steve Kochakian, a former employee of Bob Heartsong; Suzyc Goldstein, Bob Heartsong's new wife; Palm Beach County police John Van Houten, Bill Springer; prosecutor Barbara Burns; defense attorney Barry Maxwell; jury foreman Tony Alberto. (C: Harold Dow - P: Alec Surken, Lourdes Aguiar) (OAD: 01/17/09)
- 08/22/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Sugar Land Conspiracy" (9:00-10:00p) - On December 10, 2003, the Whitaker family -- Kent, his wife Tricia, and their two sons, Bart and Kevin -- returned to their Sugar Land, Texas home from dinner at a restaurant. Upon entering the house, Kevin and his mother were fatally shot by a gunman inside the house. Kent and Bart were each shot in the shoulder. Police investigation revealed that the murders had been planned by Bart Whitaker, who had enlisted friends Steven Champagne and Chris Brashear to carry out the plot and had intended being shot himself as part of the scenario. Among those interviewed are: Kent Whitaker, who says he has forgiven his son; Marshall Slot, detective, Sugar Land Police Department; Jeff Strange and Fred Falcman, Fort Bend County prosecutors; Also includes: interviews with residents of Cerralvo, Mexico, who became acquainted with Bart Whitaker after he fled there and assumed the name 'Rudy Rios'; comments from other friends of Bart Whitaker who had previously been approached by him to help murder his family; and comments from several members of the jury who convicted Whitaker of murder and sentenced him to death. Postscripts: Chris Brashear, the trigger man, pled guilty to murder. He's eligible for parole in 30 years. Getaway driver Steven Champagne received 15 years in exchange for his testimony against Bart Whitaker. Friends involved in earlier plots against the Whitaker family were all granted immunity and are free. This rebroadcast includes updated text graphics at its conclusion. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Jay Young) (OAD: 10/20/07)
- 08/22/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Letter" (10:00-11:00p) - On December 3, 1998, police in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin were called to the home of Mark and Julie Jensen. Mark said he had found his wife dead in her bed. Initially, police thought suicide was a strong possibility. But a letter written by Julie before her death expressed her suspicion that Mark might kill her. A series of toxicology tests revealed in Julie's stomach a small amount of ethylene glycol, the main ingredient in antifreeze. In March 2002, Mark was arrested and charged with the first degree murder of his wife. Initially, the judge would not allow Julie's letter to be introduced as evidence in the trial. The prosecutor appealed this decision, ultimately to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Five years passed; the appeal was successful. In January 2008, Mark went on trial Julie's murder. He was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison without possibility of parole. Includes interviews with: Julie Jensen's brothers Patrick, Paul, Mike and Larry Griffin; Florence and Dan Jensen, Mark's parents; Theresa DeFazio, teacher of one of Julie's sons; Ted and Margaret Wojt, friends of Julie Jensen; Robert Janibois, former Kenosha County District Attorney, now special prosecutor; Angie Gabrielle, Assistant District Attorney; Dr. Mary Mainland, Kenosha County medical examiner; Ed Kling, business associate of Mark Jensen; Aaron Dillard, prosecution witness. FACE THE NATION

Guest: Arne Duncan, U.S. Secretary of Education

Topics include: President Obama's September 8th speech to the nation's school children, focusing on personal responsibility and challenging students to value their education / response to the negative reaction to the speech from Republicans and the Conservative community, labeling the speech as "socialist ideology"; decision to make schools vaccination centers for the H1N1 Flu (Swine Flu) vaccine / common sense precautions regarding H1N1 Flu virus / recent outbreak at Washington State University; recent comparisons indicating American students lag behind their international counterparts / need to improve the graduation rate; U.S. Department of Education's Race to the Top Fund, which provides competitive grants to encourage and reward States that are creating the conditions for education innovation and reform / placing the emphasis on accountability and the importance of producing "common college-ready, career-ready standards" for students and educators / need for acting locally, in order to produce national results; problems with No Child Left Behind, the cornerstone of former President George W. Bush's education policy: under-funded and incorporating very stringent rules on the methods used, but loose on what the goals were, thereby allowing each state to create their own standards; desire to reward excellence with merit pay; problems associated with charter schools -- schools that receive public funding, but also raise money privately, allowing them to bypass some of the restrictions found in other public schools / conditions needed to allow charter schools to succeed

Guests: David Axelrod, White House Senior Advisor (1); Senator Olympia Snowe (R-ME), U.S. Senate Committee on Finance (2); Kathleen Parker, Syndicated Columnist, The Washington Post Writers Group (3); Roger Simon, Chief Political Columnist, Politico (3)

1) Topics include: reaction to protests against President Obama's health care plan / President Obama's September 9th address to a joint session of Congress on the issue of health care reform / continued support for the public option / commitment to providing a health care plan that will be self-sufficient and not add to the deficit / criticism against President Obama for trying to address too much too soon

2) Topics include: need for the public option to be removed from any health care plan due to a lack of support among Republicans in the Senate / support for the trigger option -- which sets a deadline for private insurance companies to create plans to cover those uninsured -- even though it will not be included in the health care plan proposed by the Senate Finance Committee / commitment to presenting a bipartisan policy / agreement with the Obama Administration over including language that would prohibit funding for abortion; reaction to the shouted outburst - "You lie!" - from Representative Joe Wilson (R-SC) during President Obama's address to a joint session of Congress

3) Topics include: opinion that President Obama will allow the Senate to remove the public option from any proposed health care plan, so that some form of health care reform will be passed / reminder that President Obama promised change, negating any criticism for trying to address too much too soon / President Obama's ability to strengthen himself against opposition through his numerous speeches

Guests: President Barack Obama (1); Michael Steele, Chairman, Republican National Convention (2)

1) Topics include: the challenge of health care reform and why some people remain skeptical of Obama's plan / description of the main points of his plan and acknowledgment of the complexity of reform / concern that his plan would mean new taxes for the middle class, and his refutation of this fear; reasons for a perceived element of meanness and anger in current political dialogue / health care reform as a proxy for the question of how much the government should be involved in the economy; the Attorney General's decision to re-open the criminal investigation of the CIA interrogations which took place after 9/11; the question of the possible commitment of tens of thousands of new American troops to Afghanistan; the decision not to implement a missile defense system in Poland and the Czech Republic

2) Topics include: the credibility of the claim that taxes won't be raised to pay for health care reform / Republican desire for health care reform which involves portability, tort reform, and the creation of small business pools, rather than an overhaul of the entire system; report that President Obama has asked New York Governor David Paterson to withdraw as a candidate next year because of fear that his unpopularity will drag down the Democratic Party

- 09/20/09 "The DEKA Arm" - a report on the DEKA arm, one of the breakthroughs of a Pentagon program called "Revolutionizing Prosthetics". This arm, one of the biggest innovations in prosthetics since World War II, provides amputees the ability to pick up small, delicate objects, something not available in arm prosthetics. Currently heading to clinical trials, it may soon be available to the more than 200 veteran arm amputees from the Afghanistan and Iran conflicts. Interviewed; Fred Downs, head of prosthetics, Veterans Administration; Dr. Geoffrey Ling, Army Colonel/neurologist; Dean Kamen, inventor; Chuck Hildreth, amputee/DEKA volunteer; Josh Bleill, leg amputee; and Jonathan Kuniholm, Duke University biochemical engineer/amputee. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta) (OAD: 04/12/09)
- WEST COAST ONLY - "Vogue, Anna Wintour" - an interview with Vogue Editor Anna Wintour. Also interviewed: Andre Leon Talley, Vogue Editor-At-Large; Grace Coddington, Vogue Creative Director; Designers Karl Lagerfeld, Nicholas Ghesquire, John Galliano; Bernard Arnault, owner of Dior and chairman of LVMH, the largest luxury conglomerate in the world. (C: Morley Safer - P: Ruth Streeter) (OAD: 05/17/09)
- WEST COAST ONLY - "Coach Carroll" - a profile/interview of University of Southern California football coach Pete Carroll, who in addition to his success on the field with the USC Trojans, started an organization called "A Better LA", to stop gang violence in Los Angeles. (C: Byron Pitts - P: Catherine Olian, Joyce Cordero) (OAD: 12/14/08)
- WEST COAST ONLY - Andy Rooney Topic: "Send It To Andy!" - Whether it's fudge, books or whistles, lots of stuff has landed in Andy's mailbox (OAD: 04/26/09)
- 09/27/09 "McChrystal" - an interview with General Stanley McChrystal, the new commander of American and NATO forces in Afghanistan. In a recent report, he warned President Obama that the war could be lost if there is not a troop increase in the next year. He also elaborates on his new strategic priority of protecting the Afghan people and earning their support. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)
- "The Liquidator" - a joint interview with Irving Picard, court-appointed trustee, and his chief counsel David Sheehan, who lead the team in charge of recovering the $18 billion in assets from the Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Bernard Madoff. Picard and Sheehan plan to file suit against various members of the Madoff family for their roles at Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities. Surprisingly, most of the potentially recoverable money will not come from the Madoff family, but from some of the victims themselves -- "net winners" -- people who took out more money than they ever invested with Madoff. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin Curran, Katy Textor)
- "A Living For The Dead" - a report on the merchandising deals and other income deceased celebrities continue to generate for their estates, focusing on an interview with the agent Mark Roesler, whose client list includes some of the biggest names -- mostly deceased -- in acting, music, and sports of the 20th Century. A pioneer of the industry, Roesler founded CMG more than twenty five years ago, at a time when a celebrity's right to control or profit from their good name was buried along with them. Includes comments from: Marcus Winslow, cousin of the late actor James Dean; billionaire entertainment entrepreneur Robert Sillerman, who owns a majority percentage of the Elvis Presley estate; and Martin Cribbs, former head of the agency Greenlight. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine, Jennifer MacDonald)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Summer Break: I'm Glad It's Over" - Andy realizes that avoiding work is hard work

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 09/05/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Invitation To A Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - Police called Mark Winger a hero on Aug. 29, 1995 when he seemingly tried to save his wife, Donnah, from being bludgeoned to death in their home by Roger Harrington, a man with a history of mental illness, whom Winger shot and killed. Four years later, DeAnn Schultz, Donnah's best friend, revealed to police that she and Mark Winger had been having an affair and that he had talked about killing his wife. Polaroid pictures revealing the position of the victims' bodies at the scene of the killings showed that Winger's account of the events lacked credibility. Seven years after the deaths of Donnah Winger and Roger Harrington, Mark Winger was tried and found guilty of murder. He was sentenced to life in prison. Segments include: "Shattered"; "A Hero's Tale"; "Dark Secret"; "Changing Tide"; "Hero Or Villain?" (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Hal Gessner - P: Gail Zimmerman, Doug Longhini, Ian Paisley)
Update for the 12/13/08 rebroadcast: In the Spring of 2005, an inmate at the prison in Pontiac came forward and said that Mark Winger tried to involve him in a murder-for-hire plot, with DeAnn Schultz as the intended victim and if money allowed, to also kill his father-in-law, Ira Drescher. In June 2007, Winger stood trial in Pontiac and claimed that the whole thing was a fantasy he never planned to carry out. Mark Winger was convicted of soliciting murder and sentenced to another 35 years. He will never be eligible for parole. Winger's second wife has divorced him. Donnah's parents, Sara Jane and Ira Drescher, are helping other abused women and have established a fund in Donnah's name at "Women in Distress", an organization dedicated to empowering domestic violence victims. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Doug Longhini) (OAD: 01/15/03; 1st rebroadcast: 06/13/03; 2nd rebroadcast: 08/25/04, included an update; 3rd rebroadcast: 12/13/08, included an update.)
- 09/05/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Kidnapped: Shawn Hornbeck's Incredible Story" (10:00-11:00p) - On October 6, 2002, eleven-year-old Shawn Hornbeck was kidnapped while riding his bicycle in his home town of Richwoods, Missouri. Over the course of the next four and a half years, he was held captive and sexually abused by his abductor, Michael Devlin. Threatened with death and the death of his parents, he took on the life Devlin dictated, posing as his son and even making friends with neighbors. Devlin wielded such terror that Shawn never revealed his real identity to anyone, despite numerous opportunities to ask for help. Then, in January 2007, Devlin abducted another youth, Ben Ownby. With the help of a witness to that abduction, the FBI was able to trace Devlin's car and confront him. When they went to Devlin's apartment, they found both Ben Ownby and Shawn Hornbeck. At his hearing, Devlin pleaded guilty. He was sentenced on multiple counts to 72 life terms and an additional 170 years in prison. Among those interviewed are: Shawn Hornbeck; his parents, Pam and Craig Akers; FBI agent Lynn Willett; and Dr. Marylene Cloitre, New York University psychologist and trauma specialist. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Katherine Davis, Clare Friedland, Chris O'Connell) (OAD: 09/27/08)
- 09/12/09 PREEMPTION
- 09/19/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Seven Days Of Rage: The Craigslist Killer" - a follow-up to "Craigslist: Classified For Murder" (OAD: 04/25/09). On April 14, 2009, model and masseuse Julissa Brisman was found murdered in a Boston hotel. Over the course of the next seven days, police investigation revealed that Brisman and two other female victims of assault had been contacted through ads they had placed on the website Craigslist. Police traced computer evidence to Philip Markoff, a medical student at Boston University. He was arrested for kidnapping, armed robbery and murder. A search of his apartment produced incriminating evidence, including the gun that killed Julissa Brisman. Further investigation of Markoff's e-mail address revealed his own ads on several adult alternative-lifestyle websites. Concluding onscreen graphic: Philip Markoff is expected to stand trial next June. Craigslist renamed its erotic services section, calling it adult services. Critics say nothing has changed. Among those interviewed: Trisha Loeffler, Markoff's first victim; Maria Cramer, reporter, The Boston Globe and 48 HOURS consultant; Joe Moura, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Paul LaRosa, 48 HOURS producer; Mark Pines, friend of victim Julissa Brisman; Maureen Orth, writer; Casey Jordan, attorney and psychologist; Morgan Houston, friend of Philip Markoff; Steve Huff, crime blogger and contributor to the True Crime Report. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

09/26/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Our Father...The Godfather" - In an exclusive interview, and for the first time, three of the children of the late crime boss John Gotti discuss the life they experienced growing up as members of his family, how they were sheltered from an awareness of Gotti's lifestyle, and their ongoing love for their father in spite of their eventual knowledge of his activities and his position as head of the Gambino family crime syndicate. Interspersed with the interviews is a narration of John Gotti's life and activities, utilizing Gotti family home videos and private photographs. Among the subjects discussed are the 1980 death of Gotti's young son, Frankie, struck by a car while riding his bike, and the subsequent disappearance of the driver of that car; the 1985 murder of Paul Castellano, reputed head of the Gambino crime family; John Gotti Jr.'s entry into the family business; John Gotti's eventual arrest and conviction in 1992 for the murder of Paul Castellano, and his sentence of life imprisonment; John Jr.'s current trial, and the family claim that John Jr. quit the mob years ago. Interviewed are: Victoria Gotti, Peter Gotti, and Angel Gotti, children of the late John Gotti; Selwyn Robb, reporter and CBS News consultant; John Gotti Agnello and Carmine Gotti Agnello, grandsons of John Gotti. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Patti Aronofsky, Joe Halderman, Douglas Longhini, Josh Yager, Lourdes Aguiar)

CBS RELIGION AND CULTURE SERIES

09/27/09 "Religion, Politics & Advocacy" - a report on how religious organizations and their coalitions work to advocate and shape legislation beneficial to the poor, the hungry, and others who may not have a voice. The program recounts how a diverse coalition of religious groups, working in tandem with health and educational organizations, was able to influence the eventual enactment in 2009 of a law authorizing the Food and Drug Administration to regulate tobacco products. The program also follows "citizen advocates" who participate in the Congressional lobbying efforts of Bread For The World, a Christian advocacy organization whose mission is to end hunger and poverty throughout the world. Among the contributors are: Allen Hertzke, The Pew Forum; Dr. Sayyid M. Syeed, National Director, Islamic Society of North America; Sister Simone Campbell, Catholic nun, lawyer, and advocate for the Catholic Social Justice lobby NETWORK; Brad Fitch, vice president, The Roll Call Group; Brent Walker, executive director, Baptist Joint Committee on Religious Liberty; Rabbi David Saperstein, director, Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism; Vincent DeMarco, national coordinator, Faith United Against Tobacco; David Beckmann, president, Bread For The World; Rev.
